

Describe the objectives of the game.

Was the objective clear at all times?

☐

What was the most important decision you made?

What type of choices did you make during the game?

What was your strategy for winning?

Did you find any loopholes in the system?

How would you describe the conflict?

In what way did you interact with other players?

What elements do you think could be improved?